

A MAJOR UPGRADE IN SILICON VALLEY TRAVEL

What a difference a year makes

If you haven't flown since last Thanksgiving, or even in the last few months, the airport has changed dramatically. Here are a few highlights of The New Airport. For all the details you'll need for Thanksgiving travel, go to www.flysanjose.com.

The New Airport in San José is on time and on budget for completion in 2010. As we complete project elements and upgrades, we're putting them into service right away to enhance your San José travel experience. For details on improvements to come, status of construction, and schedules, please visit www.flysanjose.com.

- The spectacular Terminal B Concourse is open with six new Southwest gates, plus new shops and restaurants.
- The new shopping, dining and pre-boarding areas in Terminal A are open with front-row views of the airfield.
- The expanded security checkpoint in Terminal A has eight lanes for faster processing and shorter lines.
- New street-level ticketing lobbies in Terminal A are spacious, comfortable and convenient.
- Free Wi-Fi is available throughout the terminals and concourse.
- Three airlines are moving from Terminal C to Terminal A: JetBlue on Thursday, December 3; United and Continental on Wednesday, December 9. Take note, if your return flight is after these dates.

Thanksgiving is one of our busiest times of the year, so arrive early, relax and enjoy a bite to eat. Have a wonderful Thanksgiving holiday, and thank you for flying San José.

FLY SAN JOSE

Airport of Silicon Valley and the Bay Area

www.flysanjose.com